

daana | Teacher Agreement

Without you, daana is just a good idea, so thank you for your interest in being a daana supporter. Please read the article daana - The Essence of Generosity and watch the daana prezi.

If all this resonates with you, then please continue reading :-)

Online Paypal remuneration and distribution

48-hours after the end of each class, an email will be sent to the daana yoga teacher and the respective champion stating the total number of students, total donation received for the class, class comments and what the 70-20 split is. 70% of the funds from every class will be automatically transferred to the respective daana teacher's Paypal account. The remaining 10% returns to the daana project.

daana teacher:

- Provide valid certification, if applicable, approved by a recognized organization (e.g. Yoga Alliance);
- Open a free Paypal account in order to receive your automatic remuneration;
- Teach your respective class(es) on the daana schedule;
- Arrive 10 min before starting time to help prepare the space (e.g. move furniture, etc.);
- Ensure that every participant has registered on globaldaana.org for each class (registration is mandatory);
- Start and finish on time;
- Be fully responsible for all personal insurance liabilities, both professional and commercial (please contact daana if you require assistance with this);
- Understand that daana is the primary service provider and primary recipient of the donations, on behalf of the sub-contracted teacher. daana will handle all refunding issues.

daana

- Respect the honor system for any cash (cheque or e-transfer) contributions received during daana activity, by keeping 70% and contributing 30% to daana (globaldaana.org → contribute → give to the daana project);
- Whichever activity you teach, please teach it properly (e.g. for yoga, 'yoga chitta vritti nirodha');
- Work with the local daana champion and host to propagate daana participation;
- Provide any relevant information required by daana;
- Advise your local daana champion minimum 24 hours in advance about any absenteeism (e.g. vacation, sick days, etc.), and help to find a suitable replacement;
- Advise your local daana champion about your wish to terminate this role minimum two weeks in advance. In this case, you will have to wait a period of 6 months before teaching in the same location(s) where you taught your daana class(es).

Scenario (assuming average of 10 students per class donating $10 each, $100 per class)*:

- Teacher teaching 5 daana classes per week = $$100 \times 70\% \times 5 \text{ classes} \times 50 \text{ weeks}$
= $17,500/year
